

Friday 2nd July – Sunday 4th July 2010

Information for Stall Holders

Hat Fair is Britain's longest running celebration of street theatre and community. Each year, over the first weekend in July, thousands of people travel to the historic city of Winchester from across the UK and Europe to experience out-door theatre at its best. The Hat Fair markets add greatly to the atmosphere and level of enjoyment of the audiences whether festival-goers or families and visitors to the city for their weekend shopping and sight-seeing.

Friday 2nd July

Square – Arts and craft market (15 stalls) trading 1000 to 1800 hours.

Saturday 3rd July

Square - Arts and craft market (15 stalls) trading 1000 to 1800 hours

Broadway – Fair Trade market (6 stalls) trading 1200 to 2300 hours.

Broadway – Food market (3 stalls) trading 1200 to 2300 hours.

Sunday 4th July

Oram's Arbor - Picnic in the Park (40 stalls) trading 1100 to 1830 hours.

Stalls in each of the markets are offered on the basis of quality, ethics and originality not on a first-come, first-served basis, so please ensure you give us enough information to judge your stall fairly.

Booking and Payment

If you wish to book a stall at Hat Fair 2010, please read the attached Terms and Conditions. If happy with these, kindly complete the Stall Application Form and return it with a cheque payable to Hat Fair and send them (and any supporting photos, documents, evidence of current Public Liability Insurance Cover, etc) to:

Hat Fair Markets, 5a Jewry Street, Winchester, SO23 8RZ

We should like to accommodate as many stall holders as possible. However, as stated earlier, we do operate a form of vetting. Nonetheless, to assist your planning, we undertake to advise you no later than Monday 12th April 2010 whether or not your application has been successful. No cheque will be banked until we advise you that yours is a successful application.

NOTE : We will not accept a booking unless the completed application form is accompanied by:

1. a cheque payable to Hat Fair for the full cost of the booking
2. evidence of Public Liability Insurance Cover (e.g. copy cover note).
